SUBJECT: Operational Coordination Group Meeting -
1 September 1969

1. The Chairman has placed on the agenda only one item:
"A Short Examination of the External Research Program."
2. Assistant Directors for O&O and CPO are excused from this meeting if they so desire.
3. The Chairman feels that it would be of value to examine this subject from a broad over-all point of view, and hopes that after a frank discussion an agreement can be reached as to the ends desired and the proper organization and procedures which should be established.
